Additional Info

ABD Waiver policy

If you've taken courses but haven't completed your dissertation, you may be able to waive up to 27 credits towards your degree with our ABD Waiver policy for dissertation requirement – that's half of your total required credits!

Dissertation

All doctoral programs require a dissertation, which begins in your third course and helps you manage the challenges that may arise and meet important milestones throughout your degree.

Symposiums

In addition to a dissertation, two 8-week online symposiums are also required in which you'll receive a detailed overview of each doctoral milestone as well as clear expectations for doctoral candidates.
