'It Worked for Me': Stephanie Gotts

SCAL Case Coordinator Shows How It's Always Good To Be Prepared

Current Position: Case Coordinator, KP Regional Office, Southern California

Her Goal: To transition into management

How BHMT Helped: BHMT helped through the use of Career Counseling Services

Stephanie Gotts usually felt confident when it came to interviews, but she decided that she needed to brush up on her skills a little bit. SCAL Career Counselor Lucy Gutierrez was a resource Stephanie would use when it came to school, but she was ecstatic to find that Lucy could also help her with interview prep. Stephanie and Lucy spent 30-minutes together going over tips and tricks that could help Stephanie feel more comfortable when interviewing.

Deciding to take what she had learned from Lucy and put it into practice, Stephanie interviewed for a Sr. Case Manager position. "I wanted to go in there with a plan," she says.

Through Stephanie's hard work, experience, and preparation, she was offered the Sr. Case Manager position. Not ready to stop there, Stephanie wants to master her new role and then move on to a management position.

Congratulations, Stephanie!
